TONIGHT'S MATCH-UP

Bergen-Joes. For quite a long time, this is "THE MATCH" in Bergen County. Forty times, these schools have toed the line against one another. Tonight, the winner earns the Big North Conference United Division Title for 2022-23. This also likely determines seeding in the NP-A Sectional Tournament as the winner should gain a home advantage with the seeding cutoff being just days away (1/28).

CRUSADERS: Bergen is coming off its 22nd consecutive victory (tying a school record (2013-2014) against Non-Public "A" South power, Christian Brothers Academy of Lincroft on Friday night. The outstanding match saw zero bouts yielding bonus points for either side except for the Colts' forfeit at 285. Bergen knows it will need to be at its best against the state's #3 ranked team from Montvale.

GREEN KNIGHTS: The Green Knights are currently 13-0 in-state, with their only two blemishes of the season coming at the hands of national powers from Oklahoma and Florida. They took care of BNC Opponents DePaul, Don Bosco and PC by a combined score of 147-43.

BC Head Coach: Dave Bell

24th Season: (357-89-1; .800);

14 County, 15 Section, 11 State, 23 District Title, 20 League and 1 National Title

Athletic Trainer: Mike VanKoppen

This Day in Crusader Wrestling

JANUARY 25, 2013

CRUSADERS PIN DOWN HIGHWAYMEN

ORADELL – Nick Suriano started things off with a pin in 43 seconds which jump started Bergen to a 64-13 victory over Teaneck.

The win would be win #14 in what would become BC's longest winning streak of 22 consecutive matches. The streak ran from December 19, 2012 through January 3, 2014 and included a state championship victory over CBA.

If BC wins tonight vs. St. Joseph Regional, the Crusaders will eclipse the old streak with their 23rd consecutive victory.
