THIS EVENING'S TIPS

This evening, the Basketball Program will celebrate its Impact Award Ceremony prior to the game. Basketball players have selected faculty members to thank for impacting a player in a positive way. This is a result of kind words of encouragement, extra help, a shoulder to lean on and so much more. Thanks to all of our great teachers for all they do for our young men!

At halftime, the Crusaders will honor the incoming Class of 2028. We ask that everyone recognizes the commitment to the pursuit of excellence in a Catholic School environment these young men and their families are making.

CRUSADERS: BC hopes to start a new winning streak after its longest of the season (7 games) was broken on Tuesday night. Julius Avent (#24) had the hot hand, dropping in 17 points vs. the Ironmen in defensive minded game. Sophomore guard Jayden Brown (#10) had people talking on Tuesday night, showing his ability to rebound, score, use his body and positioning to be a real threat. Declan Wucherpennig (#13), Naiim Parrish (#0), AJ Williams (#2) and Jaylen Robinson (#3) round out the starting five with Avent. Watch for Nehemiah Snell (#1), and Tyler McQuaid (#11) when the Crusaders need a jolt. Both are capable of scoring double-digits as they have each proven numerous times this year.

SPARTANS: The Crusaders are fortunate to play in a league with outstanding programs like DePaul Catholic. The Spartans consistently give a top effort and compete at every position on the court. Senior Ash Cole (#21) is the Spartans top scorer from the guard position. He is a well-rounded athlete who contributes everywhere on the court. Junior Josias Carbone (#3) joins Cole in the back court as their next best scoring option. Senior forward Ali Seidou (#0) is versatile scorer and DePaul's top rebounder.
