ORADELL, NJ, April 4, 2024 – A Bergen Catholic European travel group of students and faculty toured through Greece and Italy during the Easter vacation, taking in the majesty of both ancient and modern Greece and Rome. The Crusader travel contingent visited historic landmarks throughout the ancient world in cities such as Athens and Rome, while enjoying their break from school.

This extraordinary trip allowed BC students and faculty the chance to experience the beauty, history and wonder of Greece and Italy all together, before coming back home to Crusader Country to resume classes after the Easter break.
